II.1.4) Short description:

Hyde anticipates building approximately 11 000 mixed tenure homes over the next 5 years, and we are seeking partners to work with us to help realise this objective. Hyde wants to become synonymous with creating beautifully designed homes where people want to live, which are socially and economically successful and with quality placed at the heart of what we do. Our customers rightly demand high standards of quality and finish — whatever price they may pay for their home. This can range from a subsidised rent of 150 GBP per week rent through to 1 000 000 GBP purchase price for an apartment. The scope of works required will differ under each call-off contract, but the programme primarily covers new build residential works, with the possibility of some ancillary retail and commercial development. Successful contractors will be expected to work collaboratively with Hyde, and will be expected to have an understanding of delivering mixed tenure developments and providing added value.
